Our company was established in 1974 by Jeri Cain, CSR. Over the years our business has expanded to keep up with our changing profession and client base.

The certified shorthand reporters who work with our company are knowledgeable and have worked in the reporting field for many years. We consider them the cream of the crop among our profession. Attending conventions, seminars, participating on association boards, and continuing education is how we keep abreast of the industry and technology changes. We keep a close eye on the code sections that govern our profession. We are proud members of the National Court Reporters Association and Deposition Reporters Association of California, Inc.
